

Juvenile Petition For Marriage Has Group's Backing

A code section permitting a minor to ask consent of juvenile court for a marriage license if he believes his parents have improperly denied him their consent was urged by the National Conference of Family Relations in Southern California.

The group headed by Dr. George Mangold, University of Southern California professor of sociology, recently held a conference and voted opposition to any demand to place marriage and divorce legislation under Federal control and to the proposed Poulson Federal Constitutional Amendment which provides divorce actions may be brought only in the state of matrimonial domicile.

Nearly Half Of Preferred Steel Held By Women

Of the 468,200 individuals holding the common and preferred stock of companies in the steel industry, 232,500 are women, according to an American Iron and Steel Institute survey of companies operating 91 percent of the nation's steel capacity.

Altogether, these various groups and individuals hold the bulk of the $4,500,000,000 investment comprising the nation's blast furnaces, open hearths, rolling mills, by-product plants, iron ore mines, lake shipping and numerous bituminous coal mines.

PUEBLO TOPICS

On Thursday Dec. 12, a combination shower and farewell party was given for Miss Agnes Fladung by the 203rd club. Miss Fladung has been Catholic Welfare worker for the area for several years. Miss Fladung will be married to Joseph Svetek on Dec. 31 and will retire to become a housewife.

A program was given in her honor consisting of the dances "Las Chiapanecas," by Estella and Maura Ordaz, Amelia and Carmen Grajeda; "El Jarabe," Connie Solis and David Molinar; "La Cucaracha," Rachel Alvarez and Angelina Torres, and "La Zandunga," Beatrice Castillo, Antonia Torres, Estella and Minnie Grande, Vella Alvarez and Gloria Montejano.

Many thanks were given to Dora Torres for making the Spanish costumes and also to Al Ordaz, who helped plan the program. Hostesses were Mrs. Tula Ordaz, Pearl Oloque, Connie Grajeda, Alice Duarte and Jessie Ordaz.

Refreshments were served, then the gifts were opened by Miss Fladung, who was very happy and gave thanks to everybody. Mrs. Rosie Atecio has been ill for two weeks, but is on her way to recovery.

BUILDING PERMITS

Two building permits were issued near here during the past week, according to the San Pedro building department. These were: Howard R. Bowers, permit to build two homes at 1444 and 1447 W. 222nd st., with garages, at a total cost of $9,800, and Leslie J. Parsons, 26219 Ozone, Harbor City, garage, $540.

A wiener bake at the Torrance park on Monday Dec. 16. Refreshments were planned by Amelia Grajeda and Connie Solos. Afterwards they gathered around the fire and sang Christmas carols.

Baby Dimas Wasay, of Torrance, was baptized at the Gardens Catholic church on Sunday, Dec. 15. Miss Pearl Oloque and Miss Lola Valencia were godmothers. A dance followed at the Gardens Woman's club, with music by Tony Alvarez.

A Jamaica at the Clark stadium in Hermosa Beach was sponsored by the Church of Guadalupe.

On Dec. 11 Mrs. J. Gonzales went to Ensenada, Mexico, to visit her mother. She came back Dec. 14.

Miss Fladung would like to take the opportunity to thank all the kind friends who gave her both beautiful and useful gifts.

"SUN TIME"

Happy news for prospective sun bathers at Palm Springs during the winter season, is the announcement of Mayor Clarence Hyde that starting Nov. 17, daylight saving time will be the official time for desert vacationland.

RURAL PEDESTRIANS

Pedestrians are cautioned to walk only on the left-hand side of the road facing traffic. At night it is more than advisable to carry or wear something white to increase visibility for the motorist.

MILK PRESERVATION

Experiments by Italian chemists in the preservation of milk have revealed that the addition of a small quantity of hydrogen peroxide kills the bacteria that causes souring and is said to improve the flavor of the milk.

CHRISTMAS TIME

The love of Christ is as infinite as the stars; the reflected light they send is like the reflected happiness we receive from a gift we give.

The tinsel and baubles on a tree are tawdry until they catch the light from the candles, then they are simulated jewels from a potentate's treasure chest. Our gift may be unpretentious, but the love that goes with it is like the jewels in that chest.

Christmas is reciprocated affection. It reaches the soul of every living man and scintillates like the stars above when it is given away.

MERRY CHRISTMAS, EVERYONE.

A business is the lengthened shadow of a man. He casts a shadow of customer-service, honor, and mutual confidence. We stand within that shadow. List your property with us, your interest will be our interest.

Christmas Celebrated By Waleria PTA

The childish voices of the Waleria school children singing the lovely Christmas carols amid the holiday setting in the school auditorium Thursday enhanced the real holiday atmosphere for those who attended the December meeting of the Waleria P.T.A.

Mrs. Elizabeth Warren, principal of the Waleria school, presented the entire school in the singing of "O Come All Ye Faithful" and many of the other beautiful carols followed by the reading of the story of the Nativity from the gospel of St. Luke.

Rev. A. E. Rainwater, pastor of the Assembly of God church, gave the inspirational address taking for his topic "The Real Christmas Spirit."

Mrs. Charles Bertrand and Mrs. Orval MacAnally, room mothers for second grade children, were hostesses during the tea hour.

Mrs. Alpha Stump, teacher of the Consumer Education classes at the Waleria school, will continue her classes Jan. 7 presenting a speaker on textiles at that time.
